Mission Control

Thank you for joining Project Mercury! Earn points towards mission completion badges and prizes by reading, learning, connecting, or creating!

Like NASA before us, you must start with Project Mercury before moving on to the other missions. After 5 points have been completed in Project Mercury, you earn the participation prize! Earn 10 points to receive the Project Mercury mission completion badge and get an entry into the grand prize drawing!

After completing Project Mercury, Missions Downtown, Ellettsville, Southwest, and Bookmobile are available to earn 5 extra points each, as well as extra mission completion badges. Each mission completion also earns you an extra entry into the grand prize drawing!

How to earn points:

eLearning

Read: Read or listen to a book for one hour. Reading with or to another person counts!

Learn: Learn something new. Try using a nonfiction book or using an online resource from mcpl.info/elearning.

Book Recs

Connect: Connect with the Library. Get a recommendation from an MCPL staff member or visit mcpl.info/recommendation. Attend a Library program or sign up for a VITAL volunteer information session at mcpl.info/vital/volunteer-resources.

VITAL Volunteer Resources

Create: Create something. Attend a craft program, check out our Level Up Digital Creativity Center, or color one Mission on this map.

Program Calendar

Note: If you have another idea about how you'd like to read, learn, connect, or create that isn't listed here in Mission Control, talk to an MCPL staff member!
