

Books Plus June

Join us on Sunday at Books Plus to discuss Wild: From Lost to Found on the Pacific

Crest Trail by Cheryl Strayed at 2:00 p.m.

This memoir/adventure book recalls Cheryl's odyssey on the longest and most difficult of North America's long-distance hiking trails. With no experience and little planning, she encounters immense heat, rattlers, bears, cliffs, and raging snowstorms. But her journey is internal as well as external. Shortly before leaving her mother died and her marriage broke apart. This book describes what she learned about hiking, nature, and particularly herself during this journey. The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry by Rachel Joyce

Discussion Leader: Dory Lynch

"A novel of deep beauty and wisdom about the human condition; Harold, a deeply sympathetic protagonist, has much to teach us. A great novel; essential reading for fans of literary fiction." - Library Journal

These is my Words: The Diary of Sarah Agnes Prine, 1881-1901 by Nancy Turner

Discussion Leader: Luann Dillon

Using her ancestress' memoirs, Turner paints a vivid picture of homesteading in the Arizona Territories and how Sarah had to learn to cope with hardship.
