Adult Events

Audiobook Book Club: Where the Crawdads Sing

This book club is open to anyone who prefers the listening form of reading, and especially to those who are blind or have limited vision. This month?s title, Where the Crawdads Sing by Delia Owens, is at once an exquisite ode to the natural world, a heartbreaking coming-of-age story, and a surprising tale of possible murder. If you need help obtaining the audiobook, please contact Chris Jackson at [cjackson \[at\] mcpl.info](mailto:cjackson@mcpl.info), or (812) 349-3103. Please register. Age 18 and up. Friday, October 25, 2?3:30 PM, Program Room 2A, Main Library. Learn more about audiobooks at the Library.

Festival of Ghost Stories

Jack-o-lanterns and fresh cider set the stage for an evening of live storytelling beneath the stars. A Halloween-time tradition for over 30 years, the Festival of Ghost Stories features haunting tales of ghosts and horror that tingle the spine. Bring a lawn chair or blanket as seasoned storytellers spin their tales in the dark hollow of Bryan Park. Presented by members of the Bloomington Storytellers Guild. Recommended for adults and those age 10 & up. Friday, October 25, 7?8:30 PM, Bryan Park, 1001 S. Henderson Street (Rain Location: Auditorium, Main Library)

Dia de los Muertos/Day of the Dead

The Day of the Dead is a tradition that celebrates life and death. Stop by to make Mexican decorative crafts, or to draw or print photos of loved ones who have passed. Crafts include colorful papel picado banners, marigold flowers, matchbox shrines, and painted skulls. All ages. Thursday, October 31, Noon?3 PM, Program Room 2B, Main Library
