

36th Annual VITAL Quiz Bowl - April 15-18, 2019

32 teams + 4 nights of trivia = 36th Annual VITAL Quiz Bowl

Show off your smarts while raising money and awareness for the Library's adult literacy program, Volunteers in Tutoring Adult Learners (VITAL).

Still time to take part in the 2019 VITAL Quiz Bowl!

This trivia competition is a fun fund-raiser. Gather four friends, classmates, co-workers, anyone who loves to compete, or just have good time. Get together at the library auditorium April 15-19, 2019 and answer questions on art, common knowledge, entertainment, music, sports, and more. (Alternates allowed.) Watch last year's Quiz Bowl on CATS or read about the VITAL Quiz Bowl in this Bloom magazine article.

More information about the 2019 VITAL Quiz Bowl

6 million adults in the United States are unable to read, write, or do math above a third grade level. Quiz Bowl proceeds support opportunities for individuals, here in Monroe and surrounding counties, who want to improve their literacy, English language, or basic computer skills. Funds raised at the Quiz Bowl help pay for tutoring materials, training, and educational resources. Last year, VITAL provided learners with nearly 20,000 hours of free educational services.

For more information, call (812) 349-3173 or email [bturrent \[at\] mcpl.info](mailto:bturrent@mcpl.info) (bturrent@mcpl.info).

Posted by Jackie L. on February 20, 2019

VITAL - Volunteers in Tutoring Adult Learners
