Write a review of the book, including plot points, if you wish:

i LOVED this book is was sooo good. It is about a girl that can talk to the dead. then she sends them where they are supposed to be, in heaven. she struggles a little bit getting them to go where they should be. This book talks about all of the dead people she comes upon, she learns about their life and how they died. If you like books that make you want to keep reading YOU should read this seires
