Description	ICPE-Monroe County is a grassroots organization of parents, grandparents, and community members dedicated to empowering our community to advocate on behalf of Indiana's children and their right to an equitable and high-quality public education. ICPE is a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization with 501(c)4 status. Indiana Coalition for Public Education–Monroe County (ICPE–Monroe County) empowers citizens to advocate for high quality public education for all of Indiana's children. Our goals include keeping public dollars in public schools and informing the community about education policy affecting the classroom.
