

Summer Reading Games for All Ages

The 2021 Summer Reading Games have ended. Please look for 2022 information in early spring!

Read for fun, complete activities, and earn tickets towards prize drawings! The Library's summer reading games are a fun and free way to engage all age groups in exploring new ideas, books, and activities.

Register Here

Between June 1 and August 1, 2021, you can register on Beanstack and play online. As you read and try different activities, you'll become eligible to earn badges and prizes. See the Beanstack FAQ for more details.

Learn more about the various categories and prizes for children (ages birth–12), teens (ages 12–19), and adults (age 18 and up).

There will be a community-wide reading goal of 1,000,000 minutes, resulting in a $1,000 donation from the Friends of the Library to Monroe County Humane Association.

Summer Reading Game funding is provided by the Monroe County Public Library Foundation (Friends of the Library). Become a Friend today!
