About

Level Up is an all-ages digital creativity center that includes a video production studio with green screen, two audio production studios, and four digital creativity workstations featuring Adobe Creative Cloud. Level Up is a place for video and music production, graphic and web design, as well as coding and game creation. It is located on the first floor of the Downtown Library.

Reserving the Video Production Studio and the Audio Production Studios

The video production studio and both of the audio production studios are available for 1.15 or 1.45 hour reservations with a library card at Level Up. Maximum capacity is 2 people at a time in the studios. Reservations are released after 15 minutes of the scheduled start time if the user has not arrived.

Stop by Level Up on the first floor of the Downtown Library to reserve a production studio or reserve online:
