

Nonprofit Central

Addressing the unique information needs of area organizations

Nonprofit Central is committed to Monroe County nonprofits by

- Improving management and governance
- Increasing fundraising and resource development capacity
- Strengthening the collaborative environment in which Monroe County nonprofits operate

We offer

- Candid \(Foundation Center\) databases: grants for nonprofits and individuals
- Information on nonprofit management, governance, and resource development in a variety of formats
- Free professional learning and networking opportunities on a variety of topics
- One-on-one consultations for nonprofit board, staff, and volunteers
- Comprehensive list of area nonprofit organizations and meeting spaces
- Space in the Library for one-on-one consultations, meetings, and networking and opportunities

Location

Main Library, 2nd floor

Contact Us

Contact npc [at] mcpl.info (Bobby Overman)

or call 812-355-7515

Nonprofit Central is part of the Candid \(Foundation Center\) funding network, made possible by a grant from the United Way of Monroe County.

Updated February 17, 2020

Subscribe to Library newsletters