

Homebound Service

<!--cke_bookmark_207S--><!--cke_bookmark_207E-->

What is Homebound Service?

The Library provides personalized delivery of materials to Monroe County residents who are unable to visit the Library due to physical disability, extended illness, or significant transportation problems. Items are selected based on patron requests and preferences and are delivered once a month. This service is free to Monroe County residents.

How can I request Homebound Service?

kdockert [at] mcpl.info (Email Katelynn Dockerty) or call (812) 349-3084 to request Homebound Service. You can also apply online, or print this form, fill it out, and mail it to:

Monroe County Public Library
Attention: Katelynn Dockerty
303 E. Kirkwood Avenue
Bloomington, Indiana 47408

How can I volunteer to help?

The Library is looking for people who are willing to help select and deliver materials to homebound patrons. Volunteers must:

- Commit to 2–4 hours per month
- Complete a 1.5-hour training session
- Provide their own transportation

To volunteer, kdockert [at] mcpl.info (email Katelynn Dockerty) or call (812) 349-3084. You can also apply online, or print this form, fill it out, and mail it to the address above.

What other Library services can be accessed from my home?

- All eLibrary resources
- General reference assistance by phone at (812) 349-3050, or through the ask a librarian form
- The Library catalog and your account

Updated October 31, 2019

Subscribe to Library newsletters