Teen Homework Help

While there is no in-person homework help available at the Library, the following online homework help resources are available.

Homework Resources

eLibrary Access for Schools
Use these popular free Library resources in the classroom, or for homework and independent study.

Virtual Tutoring
The Indiana University School of Education is offering free virtual tutoring from mid-September through Thanksgiving for K-12 students from School of Education teacher candidates. Students will be matched with a teacher candidate based on availability and grade level. Requests can be made at go.iu.edu/3ayw and questions can be sent to edhelp [at] iu.edu.

Indiana Kids
Sign up for this free, enrollment-based academic tutoring and mentoring program for students in grades 6–12. After enrolling, students meet with mentors to make arrangements for in-person and online tutoring dates. Help with English, social studies, science, and math assignments is available. Indiana Kids is a collaboration between Indiana University and Serve Indiana.
