Write a review of the book, including plot points, if you wish:

This book is about a boy, Percy Jackson, who finds out that he is a half-blood, half a greek god. Percy is the son of Posiedon, the god of water. Percy has been framed of stealing one of Zues's lightning bolts, and his mother is taken by Hades, the god of the Underworld. He sets out to save her with his friends, Grover, a satyr, and Annabeth, the daughter of Atheena. And that's when the adventure begins.

Would you recommend this book?:

I would recommend this book to any one who likes adventure, mystery, or is interested in mythical legends.
