In English language groups, adult learners enjoy friendly conversation while practicing everyday language skills in a relaxed, informal atmosphere.

Topics include conversation, reading short stories, practicing pronunciation, and more. Learners explore daily life in the US, gain confidence, and meet people from around the world.

COVID-19 Update

VITAL services are available remotely through self-paced learning programs and virtual English language groups. Fill out the request form to get started.

Learners can also drop in at the VITAL office during regular Library hours. First-time visitors will register before joining a class. Staff will conduct an informal language assessment, recommend resources, and provide a calendar.
