

Black History BINGO

For Black History Month, play a game of Bingo that facilitates discussions on race, features acts of kindness, and offers opportunities to learn about Black visionaries, leaders, and artists! Complete five squares in a row to earn a prize!

Visit mcpl.info/bingo to learn more and get material for each square and to submit your board.

B I N G O

Enroll in our "Everyone Has a Story" all-ages reading challenge	Read a book from our Civil Rights Movement or Talking About Race children's staff picks lists	Use World Book for Kids to learn about a suggested movement	Use World Book for Kids to learn about a suggested person	Talk to your family about the word "racism"
Use World Book for Kids to find a painting, poem, or song from the Harlem Renaissance	Donate to the Backpack Buddies program	Watch "Martin's Big Words" by Dorreen Rappaport on Hoopla	Pick up an MLK Day Take and Make Kit at the Library	Become a penpal with an assisted living home resident
Watch a PBS Kids Talk episode on race and racism	Spend 10 minutes picking up litter with a grownup	Help a grownup with a chore without being asked to	Watch a CNN and Sesame Street Town Hall on race and racism	Watch a Sesame Street video about empathy
Paint a rock with a kind message and hide it in a park	Thank someone for something they did for you	Write a kids' book review on our website	Write about or draw how the world would change if everyone were kind to each other	Do something nice for someone else without telling anyone
Read a book or tell a story to a friend	Talk with your grownup about ways you can show kindness to yourself	Watch a related thematic film on Kanopy for Kids	Write and mail a letter to a relative or friend	Donate clothes or toys you've outgrown to a mutual aid group